DESCRIPTION

At home the devices that need electricity are increasing more and more, Ewent with the EW3915 Multi-socket offers 5 places to power, TV, Decoder, Console, HiFi stereo, USB charger and many others.
The power strip from Ewent offers premium surge protection for computers, audio / video equipment and other household devices. With the main switch it is easy to turn off all the equipment at once. In addition to this it is also equipped with a special safety for children.
The EW3915 is equipped with fixing eyelets so as to place the power strip under a desk or in the furniture in the living room. The "space saving" angle of the plug makes the power strip ideal for small spaces.
