DESCRIPTION

The URBAN BUSINESS Backpack is the perfect companion for modern professionals, students, and travelers. Designed to carry everything you need with ease, this backpack combines smart organization, durable materials, and a sleek, urban look.
Crafted from waterproof and tear-resistant Oxford 600D fabric, it offers long-lasting protection for your belongings in all weather conditions. The outer material is made from recycled PET bottles (rPET), making it a sustainable and responsible choice.
With a spacious 25-liter capacity, the backpack features two main compartments, including a padded section for laptops up to 16.1”, as well as multiple pockets for documents, accessories, water bottles, and more. A front zippered pocket provides quick access to your essentials, while the reflective safety strip enhances your visibility at night.
Designed for all-day comfort, it includes padded, adjustable shoulder straps and a breathable back panel, ensuring you stay comfortable even during long commutes or travel.
Whether you’re heading to the office, university, or a weekend getaway, the URBAN BUSINESS Backpack combines functionality, sustainability, and style in one smart design.
